MINISTRY OF IRRIGATION AND POWER

NOTIFICATION.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 13 of the Inter-State Water Disputes Act, 1956, (33 of 1956), the Central Government, after consultation with the State Governments, hereby makes the following rules, namely:-

The Inter-State Water Disputes Rules, 1958.

1. Short Title. - These rules may be called the Inter-State Water Disputes Rules, 1958.

2. Definitions. - In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires, -

(i) 'the Act' means the Inter-State Water Disputes Act, 1956 (33 of 1956);

(ii) 'section' means a section of the Act.

3. Form and manner of making requests for adjudication of Water Disputes.- (1) Where the Government of any State desires to refer, under section 3, any water dispute to a Tribunal for adjudication, it shall address a letter in writing, in triplicate, signed by a Secretary to that Government, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Irrigation and Power, New Delhi, and such letter shall, unless delivered personally, be sent by registered post.

(2) Such letter shall contain information on the following points, namely:-

(a) the parties to the water dispute;

(b) the specific matters in dispute between them;

(c) any other matter connected with or relevant to the water dispute; and

(d) the efforts, if any, made by the parties themselves to settle the dispute.

Contd...2/-

4. Notice to parties to nominate representatives . - The Tribunal shall, for the purpose of the proceedings before it, require the parties to the dispute, in the form set out in the Annexure, to nominate, within a specified time, persons to present their case before it.

5. Procedure if representatives are not nominated. - Where a party to the proceedings before a Tribunal fails to nominate any representative to present its case before the Tribunal or where the representative so nominated does not appear before the Tribunal, the Tribunal may proceed as if such party had been represented.

6. Serving of notice or order. - Any notice or order issued by the Tribunal may be served either personally or by registered post.

7. Procedure at commencement of proceedings. - At the commencement of the proceedings before the Tribunal, each of the parties shall state its case in such order as the Tribunal thinks fit.

8. Examination by representatives. Any representative of a party appearing before the Tribunal may examine, cross-examine, and re-examine any person, other than a representative of a party, appearing before the Tribunal and may address the Tribunal in regard to the water dispute in such order as the Tribunal thinks fit, after each party to the dispute has presented its case before it.

9. Assessors. - Where the Tribunal appoints assessors to assist it in the proceedings before it, it shall obtain the advice of such assessors but such advice shall not be binding on it.

10. Fees.- Where the presiding officer of a Tribunal or assessor is not a serving judge of the Supreme Court or a High Court or a salaried officer of the

Contd.../3p

Union or the State Government, as the case may be, he may be granted such fees as may be sanctioned by the Central Government in consultation with the Chief Justice of India in the case of a presiding office and in consultation with the presiding officer in the case of an assessor.

11. Appointment of officers of the Tribunal, and their terms and conditions of service. - The presiding officer of the Tribunal shall appoint, on terms and conditions approved by the Central Government, such officers for the office of the Tribunal, as he may consider necessary for the performance of the Tribunal's duties under the Act;

Provided that where the presiding officer elects not to himself appoint such officers, the Central Government shall arrange to provide such number of officers as may be required by the presiding officer.

12. Expenditure to be borne by the Central Government. - All administrative expenditure of the Tribunal and its office, shall be initially borne by the Central Government, but will later on be adjusted in accordance with the decision of the Tribunal as laid down in section 9(3).

13. Headquarters of the Tribunal.- The Central Government may, be notification in the Official Gazette, fix the Headquarters of the Tribunal at such place as it deems fit.

Annexure

(See rule 4)

To

The Secretary to the Government of _____

WHEREAS a water dispute has arisen between the Government of _____ and _____ viz., (here explain the water dispute);

AND WHEREAS I have been appointed as presiding officer of the Tribunal constituted by the Government of India under Section 4 of the Inter-State Water Disputes Act, 1956 (33 of 56), in respect of said water dispute;

NOW, THEREFORE, you are hereby required to intimate to me not later than the _____ name(s) and addressess(es) of the person(s) whom the Government of _____ have nominated as its representative(s).

If no such nomination is received by me by the aforesaid date, the case will be decided in the absence of any representative of the State Government.
